and bullets. There wasn't much fun up there either, thinking every one that came was for me with my name written on it. I was right up with the artillery the morning of the 11th when the firing ceased. Good but we were out of happy birds.

Well, guess I had better hasten to catch the next train to dreamland; but had rather board a ship for home. Answer soon, with all good news. Love to all.

Pvt. Sterling Franklin, 10th M. G. Bn., APO 746, now in Germany, to Miss Lily Woodridge.

Dear Friend:

Will answer your kind and welcome letter, which has just come to hand. Was glad to hear from you. This letter, as well as getting along all right.

It is knowing how now to beat the band and has been for two weeks, and you know this is no place for Virginia boys—but we are here just the same.

No, I haven't seen Norman. I've been in the States for a while, but I haven't seen him. I've been in the States for a while, but I haven't seen him.

Yes, I remember the good times we used to have together. You asked me what I was going to do later, and you said you were going to have an ag-hunt. Don't wish I could be there with you and have some fun. Don't know what I will do the end of the thing I guess, for I am in the army now and not behind the plow. Will tell you more about it when I get home. This army is some place to make a man home-sick and lonesome.

Suppose Norman and Taylor will be home before I do, for my division isn't scheduled to sail before August 19; but I hope we will before that time. Yes, I get a letter from home most every week. But I was over here five months before I received one; and you know I was in the States for a while, but I haven't seen him.

I haven't a girl at all in this country, neither in France. Nothing to me like the U. S. A. girls.

You don't know how bad it is to be in a country where you cannot speak the language nor understand what they say to you; it makes a soldier boy feel lonesome. But I can speak my German than French, for I have been in Germany the longest.

I was glad to hear from you; hope to get another letter soon. Tell Beronie hello for me, and all the rest of the family.

Tell come more of the girls to write to me. I will keep me from getting too lonesome. Guess I had better close for this time, hoping to hear from you real soon. Much love to you and the entire family.

P. S. Am sending you a little Library of the 1st Division, Organized in December, 1917, at Camp Greene, N. C.

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a jimmy pipe packed with Prince Albert!

That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five acres out of a family deck!

So, when you hit Prince Albert, coming and going, get out half an hour earlier just to start stoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bits and parches—well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!

Today had bags, today red, today handsome and half-pound tin smokers—and that class, practical pound crystal glass humidor with sponge moisture top that keeps the tobacco in such perfect condition.

R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

In battle of Meuse-Argonne—Sept. 26 to Nov. 11, 1918, in action 83 days; gained 32 kilometers; captured over 3000 prisoners, 61 field guns, 289 machine guns, 10 mine-wreckers and 2 tanks.

Losses—492 officers, 12,436 men.

Pvt. Robert L. McFadden, 1st M. G. Bn., to his mother, Mrs. Lucy McFadden.

My dear Mother:

Will tonight write you a few lines to let you hear from me. Haven't heard from you for a good while. I am afraid some of you are sick. I have been dreaming so about Sweetie.

Let Action Follow Thought.

A philosopher once said that there is no value in any thought, no matter how fine, unless it is turned into action. I am a little bit of a philosopher, and I am a little bit of a philosopher, and I am a little bit of a philosopher.

When "peace" was declared I was up in the hardest of the battle. The big shells were falling all around us. We had to work on dead bodies day after day. The Germans were just piled in piles. We sure did spend some miserable hours.

Hardly had a place to hide from the big shells bursting all around us. When night came we could not sleep for the airplanes dropping bombs. Hope I will never be in another war. But I can say I thank my good Lord for sparing me through those terrible battles and sending peace on earth again. Will

From Day to Day.

Don't imagine that the doctor can cure your life when it depends on you to cure yourself. It is not fair to the doctor to ask him to do the whole thing with a few little pills. What you do from day to day has more to do with your health than any medicine can possibly have, and plenty of substantiated facts show that a daily dose of that should never be overlooked.

of the County

Long Creek

The fields and woods are green and the second month of spring is gone, but we had two big frosts, which cut down the vegetables, and first feel very comfortable.

Mr. Jack Baker and Mrs. Sam Thackston were the guests of Mrs. Walter Thomas on Sunday.

Miss Dalish Wilson, of Wilmington, N. C., and Misses Thilda and Mary Wilson, of Lynchburg, have been the guests of Miss Mary Wilson.

Mr. Emma Godsey is on the sick list at the home of her niece, Mrs. J. J. Farrar.

We have a booming Sunday school at Trinity church, Red House. Old and young are taking great interest.

Mr. Joseph Hamlet has returned from overseas and is looking well and is glad to get back on his own soil.

Mr. B. B. Pulliam, who has been visiting his nephew, Mr. J. J. Farrar, has returned to his home in Lynchburg.

Charlotte Lane, where art thou?

My Brother Overseas

(By Minnie R. Mann)

I have a brother overseas, I know he often thinks of me. He went away one day last day.

Across a deep blue sea To fight the Hun, to capture guns, To keep the Germans on the run.

The fight is done, the victory is won, And he has proved a gallant son.

If God be pleased, he'll soon return from overseas; To every one do mother dear, To father near, To even me, from overseas.

He's been away almost one year; He went to fight with Com'pany K;

Yes, went away without a fear, And didn't even shed a tear. He knew, in his heart, he was secure; When in the fight God is with true.

He went to know to conquer the foe And to pay the debt to France we owe

And to give his life if need be. He was in some drives, but came out alive.

His division was on the field when the flag was waved To show that the foe would fight no more.

Many interesting Reports Made of Her People.

Public school examinations here on May 1st and 2nd.

Board of Supervisors meet on May 13.

Circuit court opens here on May 13.

Mr. John G. Glover has his new Ford car.

Mr. H. D. Onofredo has sold his home place to a colored woman whose husband died in the service of the government.

She is to pay for the place with the insurance money.

Mr. James L. Baird and his boys have got busy on the place they bought from Mr. Frank Robertson. And if corn sells for as much next year as it does now, they will make a goodly part of the purchase price of the place on it the first year.

Mr. G. M. Rogers has come here to practice law and be on Judge Hall compose the law firm of Hall & Rogers.

Curtisville District is to borrow $5000 from the State and put up a new school building at Dillwyn. The people of Dillwyn put up a treat to the school for when they met there, serving a nice dinner at Hotel Culbreth.

Messrs. Garrett and Seward attended the Methodist conference at Crews.

All the teachers in the high school here have been offered their same positions and some of them have accepted. Professor Brown took time to consider the matter and Miss (Frances) Armstrong was in Richmond when the appointments were made. Prof. Royall has been teaching for Miss Armstrong while she was away.

Miss Fannie Haskins got an appointment to see John L. Rogers, who is now in charge of the Department in Washington and has gone to work there.

Farmers are well up with their plows and some have begun planting corn despite the continued cold spell.

Miss Anna Roy Rogers is sending making a visit to her sister in Washington and then go on to see Rev. John L. Rogers, who is now in charge of a church or churches in West Virginia.

Miss Emma G. Haskins, after teaching the past season in New Kent county, is at home to spend her vacation.

There is to be a marriage in high life—a young widow and a widower, both Buckingham people—of which more anon.

Cherries and peaches were on the trees when the cold spell came, but I do not know that they can stand the cold, as the water is frozen over the tub at the door as I write this.

Some needed improvements are being made by the local telephone company.

The boys at Hampton Training College, who were in training for military service when the war ended got the $50 bonus same as the other discharged soldiers.

Cathedral District Cannot Be Cured

It is thought we will only be here for a few weeks, and then to God's country, good old U. S. A.
